

Community
Sports
Trust

Lionel Road Lockdown Tracks

During the 2nd lockdown, we brought together Brentford player Josh Dasilva with Trust volunteers, participants and the CEO of Brentford FC Community Sports Trust for a unique evening discussing music. Coined Lionel Road Tracks, the music workshop was hosted by BBC journalist Phil Parry and was an opportunity for all involved to share what music meant to them.

Who took part?

- Brentford player Josh Dasilva
- CEO of Brentford FC Community Sports Trust Lee Doyle
- BBC journalist Phil Parry
- Trust volunteer and former participant Daniel
- Trust volunteer Prem
- Zoe, who is part of our girls' football programme.
- Xoix – who is part of our young carers project.

Song that most represents your identity and who you are

- 'So am I' - Ava Max
- Happy - Pharrell Williams
- Wings - Little Mix
- Franz Liszt - Liebestraum
- Ben Howard - Keep your head up
- Blessed - Wizkid ft Damian Marley

Song that represents your future hopes, dreams and ambitions

- Roar - Katy Perry
- Dreams - Fleetwood Mac
- There's no stopping us - Ollie and Jerry
- tan Getz & Joao Gilberto - Corcovado
- Place your Hands - Reef
- Dreams and nightmares - Meek Mill (Clean)

Song that helped you get through lockdown

- Savage love - Jason Derulo
- Don't look back in Anger - Oasis
- Beat it - Michael Jackson
- Symphony no 6. (Pathetique Adagio) - Tchaikovsky
- Movin on Up - Primal Scream
- All Night Long - Lionel Ritchie

